WHEN CHOOSING GODPARENTS

Godparents are to be present in order to represent both the expanded spiritual family of the one to be baptized and the role of the Church as a Mother. Godparents help the parents so that children will come to profess the faith and live up to it. In the actual celebration of baptism, the part of the Godparents is to, together with the parents, profess the Church's faith in which the children are baptized. Therefore Godparents, chosen by the families of children to be baptized, must, be qualified to "carry out" the above responsibilities.

Requirements for Godparents:

- There is to be only one male godparent or one female godparent or one of each.
- Those designated must have the capability and intention of carrying out the responsibility of a godparent and be mature enough to do so. A person +16 years of age is presumed to have the requisite maturity.
- Those designated as godparents must have received the three Sacraments of Initiation of the Roman Catholic Church, Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, (and must present this information in the form of a Sacramental Record less than six months old to the parish along with the godparent information) and be living a life consistent with the Catholic Faith.
- Those designated as godparents must be practicing members of a Catholic Church. At the request of the parents, a baptized and believing Christian not belonging to the Catholic Church may act as a Christian witness along with a Catholic godparent, where there is only one Godparent.
- Godparents and Witness must provide a letter of 'Affirmation of Good Christian Standing' from the pastor of the Church where they are known and regularly attend.
